

Why Volunteer at “The Tulip Festival”

1. Do you need work experience hours to assist with your studies? Many courses will give you credit for hours worked at the festival.
2. Would you like to add community involvement/volunteer experience to your resume? Volunteers receive a Certificate of Appreciation and a reference to help when seeking employment in the future.
3. Are you just interested in helping out and having fun? We'd love for you to join our crew!

All volunteers who complete a minimum of 2 full shifts working at the festival will receive:

- Certificate of Appreciation
- Two double passes to the festival for family or friends.
- One complimentary bunch of tulips
- Lunch on each rostered day
- 40% discount off merchandise in the souvenir shop
- Invite to the Staff Party on the final day of the festival.
- Reference (upon request)

The Role:

Volunteers take up the role of Roaming Information Attendants. These attendants will be positioned at the entry points to assist visitors with access and information, as well as in the tulip fields to be a point of contact and assist visitors.

Management Roles Available:

- Vendor & Entertainment Liaison Officer.
- Volunteer Co-ordinator

If you are interested in the abovementioned roles please email your application with a resume of work experience to Attention: Melanie Rankin-Smith at promotions@tesselaar.net.au

Induction:

There will be an induction the week prior to the festival, date TBA and all volunteers engaged to participate in the festival are expected to attend.
